The Warmer.— Who is not in love with this charming weather? In the midst of winter we are enjoying all the felightful temp-rature of summer. Overcosts and heavy clething have, again become nucles, and with light clothing one is comfortable. The walking is not so good as it might, he, owing to the thawing of the late storm, which is still left in spots about the city. Take it allogether, lowerer, we have good reason to be thankful to the clerk of the weather for the present spell.
